

Attention Motor Coach and Tour Operators!

GROUP TICKETS for groups of 30 or more

While tickets retail for $35, we are extending a significant discount to tour operators that purchase at least 30 tickets with two options (price includes handling and sales tax, while the cost of a designated driver ticket remains at $15):

Book and pay by March 31, deep savings, only $20 each!

Book and pay April 1-May 4, still a great bargain at just $25 each

Seneca Lake Wine & Food is May 18, 2019 from 11am-5pm, and is being held at scenic Clute Park at the southern tip of Seneca Lake in Watkins Glen, live music and waterfront views will also be a part of the event for you and your clients to enjoy. There will be hundreds of wines served by Seneca Lake wineries for sampling and purchase, along with a number of regional food vendors. The list of wineries who will be pouring at the event along with a list of eateries and other unique vendors, can be found on the detailed event information page.

A Sunday Tasting Pass is also available to event attendees. If you plan on your group visiting wineries on Sunday, it will be necessary for you to book appointments at those wineries directly in advance of the event. This process should be straightforward, learn more here on How to Give a Large Group Tour.

To purchase tickets, email the following information to info@senecalakewine.com and the Seneca Lake Wine Trail office will confirm your order and payment options; we take all major credit cards but also accept checks and money orders. Once paid, all ticket sales are final and non-refundable. Event wristbands and Sunday passes will be mailed to you in advance of the event:
